Atlantic Fleet Swarming Southward To Force General Huerta To Make Apology

Secretary of the Navy, Following a Cabinet Meeting, Ordered Atlantic Fleet to Steam at Once to Mexico—Demand Issued Calling on Huerta to Salute the Stars and Stripes Within 24 Hours After Receipt of the Word—American Government Determined to Have Satisfaction, But Desires Amicable Settlement.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 14.—A general concentration of the Atlantic fleet at Tampico was ordered by Secretary of the Navy Daniels, after a Cabinet meeting in which President Wilson laid before them the necessity for backing up Rear Admiral Mayo, in his demand that the American flag be saluted by the Huerta commander.

A demand to the Federal Commander at Tampico, to salute the stars and stripes within twenty-four hours, in apology for the arrest of American marines there, last Thursday, was prepared. It is understood the demand gives the Huerta commander twenty-four hours' time after receipt to comply.

Officials said that while no ultimatum had been issued to the Huerta government, the mobilization of the fleet at Tampico was intended to put the American government in position to enforce their demands, if necessary.

Naval officers eagerly transmitted the orders of Secretary Daniels to the fleet and a scene of activity and anticipation eagerly followed. The feeling that the Washington government had determined to show the Huerta government of the fixed determination on an apology and public salute, pervaded official circles.

Members of the cabinet are hopeful that no further step would be required to secure compliance with the United States' demand, but they privately admitted that the Washington government was getting ready to enforce demands if they meet with resistance.

The mobilization of the fleet under such circumstances as occurred today immediately raised in official circles the question of whether the landing of marines at Tampico in satisfaction for the arrest of the marines last Thursday, would be an act of war.

It had been repeatedly pointed out that the landing of armed forces without the permission of the government in control of the territory, was regarded here as an act of war, and might carry with it intervention.

It was pointed out today, however, by those familiar with the circumstances that should the Huerta government fail to resist an aggressive step and retire, no further serious consequences might result and the United States might feel disposed not to press the affair any further. Inasmuch as the American government has not recognized any government, but regards the southern republic as being in a state of anarchy, it has long been realized here that unusual steps might be taken without arousing grave complications.

John Lind, the President's special envoy, now in Washington, is known to have held for some time the view that more drastic measures should be used in dealing with the Huerta government. He is understood to have told President Wilson and Secretary Bryan that Huerta would delay and evade the issue as long as the United States seemed disinclined to use force.

This feeling has long been growing in administration circles, and President Wilson has shown in talk with callers his rigid determination not to temporize with the Huerta government, but to insist on the demands made upon Huerta.

The naval demonstration ordered today is the outgrowth of the events of the last eight months, particularly since the contending factions have disregarded the rights of foreigners.

There was evidence that the President has elected to use force in dealing with the situation, and demonstrate to the Huerta government the policy of the United States.

When assembled, the fleet under Admiral Badger will have under his command, twenty-odd war ships. Admiral Fletcher, at Vera Cruz, now has the battleship Florida and the transport Prairie, with 600 marines.

Admiral Mayo, at Tampico, has the Utah, Connecticut,

Minnesota, the cruisers Des Moines, Chester, Dolphin, the San Francisco and 600 marines.

The hospital ship, Solace, will join Admiral Mayo at Tampico in a day or two. Admiral Badger, at Hampton Roads, has the Arkansas, New Jersey, Vermont, New Hampshire in addition to the battleships Georgia, Virginia, Nebraska, Rhode Island, now at the Atlantic Coast Navy Yards, which may be attached to the fleet.

It is expected that Admiral Badger will start his fleet tomorrow and arrive at Tampico this week.

It was learned that Charge d' Affairs, Nelson O'Shaughnessy, reported earlier in the day that Huerta actually had promised to fire a salute to the Dolphin, but conditioned it on a salute in response.

WHOLE FLEET TO TAMPICO

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 14.—(Bulletin)—All battleships of the Atlantic fleet at Hampton Roads were ordered to Tampico. The transport Hancock, with 800 marines was ordered from New Orleans to Tampico at once.

THREE FIGHTERS ENROUTE

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 14.—(Bulletin).—The South Carolina, enroute from San Domingo, was intercepted by wireless and ordered to Tampico. The gunboat Nashville at San Domingo and the Tacoma, at Boston, were also ordered to Tampico.

Washington, D. C., April 14.—(Bulletin).—The torpedo flotilla at Pensacola, Fla., was notified to be ready to join the battleships at Tampico on short notice.

SEVEN ARE OVERCOME

By Associated Press.

Boston, Mass., April 14.—Seven lives were lost in a fire which wrecked The Melvin, a five story brick apartment house at Commonwealth and Long Avenue, in the Alston district, early today. It was feared one other occupant, missing for several hours after the fire, had been burned. The loss was $60,000.

Miss Alice Shackford and Mrs. Edith Bemis met death by jumping from the fourth and fifth floors. The bodies of the other victims were found on the fifth floor, two hours after the fire. All had been suffocated.

The fire started in the basement near a waste paper chute, and the flames shot up through the elevator. The whole building was ablaze when the firemen arrived. No one had time to dress and there was considerable suffering from exposure in the chill air of the early morning. The survivors were sheltered in nearby apartment houses.

COX APPOINTEES

By Associated Press.

Columbus, Ohio, April 14.—Dr. H. C. Mataack, of Cincinnati, was reappointed member of the State Dental Board, by Governor Cox for a term ending April 6, 1919. Henry C. Gray, of Hamilton, was reappointed Commissioner of soldiers' claims for two years.

TAMPICO SITUATION GROWS IN INTENSITY

Government Officials Sift the Facts Concerning the Arrest of American Marines and Mayo's Demand for an Apology—Will Thoroughly Investigate the Affair Before Taking Drastic Steps—Naval Officers Want to Uphold Mayo, After Giving Mexicans Due Time to Comply.

By Associated Press.

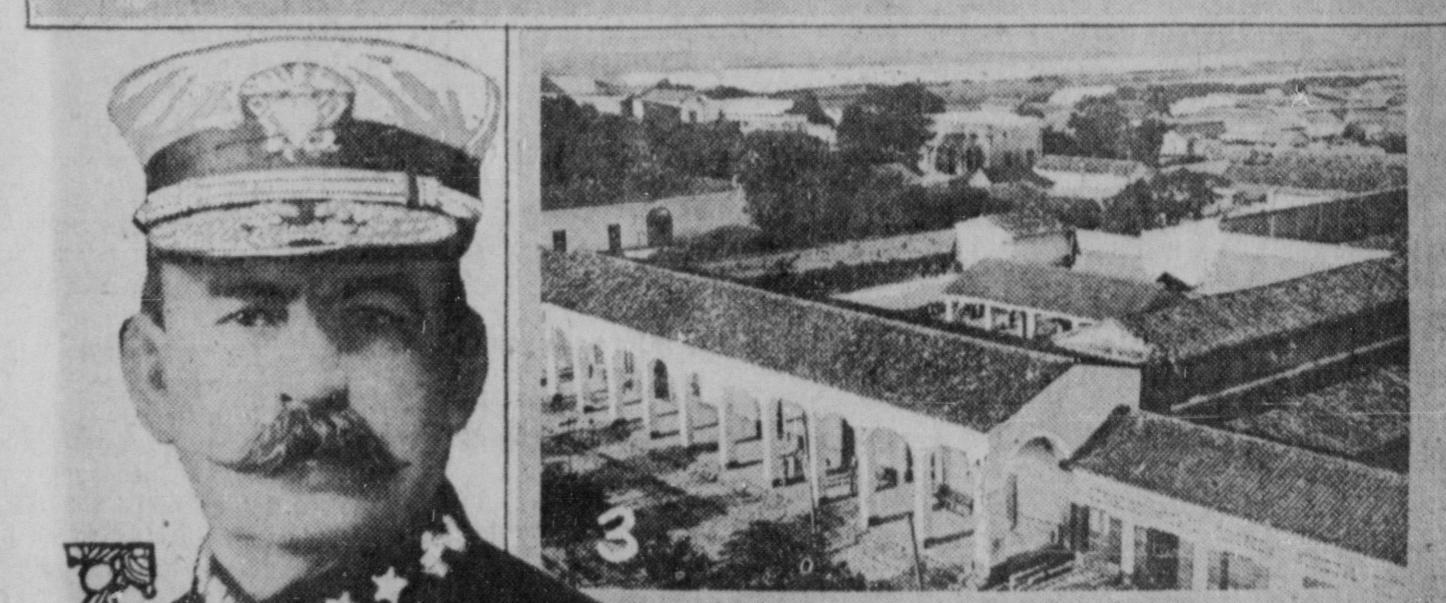

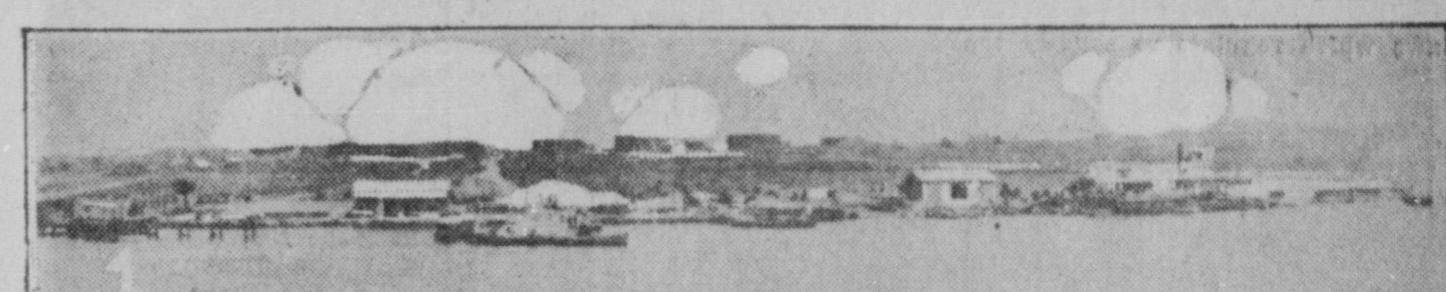

Washington, D. C., April 14.—After a conference between President Wilson, Secretary Bryan and John Lind, and after a Cabinet meeting today, it was decided that before the Washington government should proceed further in backing up Rear Admiral Mayo in his demand that the Mexicans salute the American flag at Tampico in apology for the recent arrest of American marines, a further investigation will be made of the facts surrounding the incident. All officials are silent on the situation, an admittedly tense one. Cabinet members let it be known, however, that the delay did not exhibit a possible change in President Wilson's attitude, but a determination to investigate Huerta's statements and Rear Admiral Mayo's reports.

The administration wishes to be fully informed before going further. It is pointed out that the difficulty of communicating

SINGLE MEASURE TO BE REPORTED

Will Embody Substance of Tentative Anti-Trust Bills.

HOUSE COMMITTEE'S DECISION

Disapproval Expressed by President Wilson of the Proposal in Congress to Curtail the Anti-Trust Legislative Program For This Session. Action On General Measure Likely To Be Delayed.

Washington, April 14.—Disapproval was expressed by President Wilson of the proposal in congress to curtail the anti-trust legislative program for this session.

Later, members of the house judiciary subcommittee who had conferred with the president on the subject declared that an effort would be made to report out quickly a single measure embodying the substance of all the separate tentative trust bills, and that legislation also would be pressed to meet the demands of labor for restriction of the injunction power of the courts.

That opposition to carrying out the full trust legislative program is growing among senate and house Democrats continues in evidence, notwithstanding determination to revive the efforts to perfect measures affecting interlocking directorates, holding companies, price discriminations and other evils.

Senator Newlands, chairman of the senate interstate commerce committee, said his committee expects to report a general trust bill soon. The members have not agreed upon details. Before the committee defer- mines finally upon its course it will pass on the amendment already prepared to preclude action at this session on anything but a bill to create an interstate trade commission with broad powers and express directions to investigate the whole problem of big business and to recommend to the next congress what legislation supplemental to the Sherman law should be enacted. Unless this plan is agreed to the committee will proceed to perfect the tentative measure it has worked out in five sections.

The first section would create a commission to regulate corporations; the second would prohibit forms of interlocking directorates in competing concerns; a third would regulate holding companies; a fourth would deal with stock watering and the issuance of railroad securities, and a fifth would attempt to eradicate price discriminations which affect competition.

Besides the members of the house judiciary subcommittee, President Wilson conferred with Representative Webb of North Carolina. After the conferences, the subcommittee determined upon the following program:

Speeding up of committee consideration of the anti-trust legislation with a view to reporting as quickly as possible a single bill comprising the principles of the Clayton bills on trade relations and interlocking directorates, holding companies and definitions; inclusion of the anti-injunction plan in this bill or in a separate measure, to regulate issue of injunctions and restraining orders in strikes and other labor controversies, to provide due notice to all parties concerned and jury trial rights in contempt proceedings for violations of injunction decrees.

Chairman Clayton of the judiciary committee said he hoped to have the anti-trust bills out of his committee and reported to the house within a fortnight.

velot, a Frenchman by birth, an Astronomer in Harvard; unfortunately he was also an ardent entomologist who had devoted much of his leisure time to the consideration of the silk worm industry. In an evil hour he conceived the idea of breeding a hardier worm which might withstand the diseases which were then ravaging rearing establishments in France and in pursuit of this purpose imported some gipsy moths, intending to cross them with some of the native species found in the United States. It so chanced, however, that he left the window of his study in Medford, Mass., open one day. When he returned a mass of eggs laid by the gipsy visitors had disappeared—apparently it had blown out of the open window. At this point Trouvelot's experiments stopped. Their results did not. They are still with us and have cost the country millions of dollars. For twenty years the gipsy moth attracted no attention. The people of Medford may have wondered at the destruction of their trees, but the damage remained local and the outside world knew nothing of it. In 1889, however, the pest suddenly became prominent. Since that time a bitter warfare has been waged against it, but the victory is not yet won.

CLOVER DAMAGED BY LATE FREEZE

Farmers from all over the county are complaining that the late freeze greatly damaged their spring-sown clover, and that as a result of the freeze, a large per cent of the young clover has been hopelessly killed.

Some of the farmers are inclined to take a more hopeful view of the situation, and claim that the freeze did not permanently injure the young clover.

SCIOTO VALLEY MAY BE EXTENDED

While nothing is known officially concerning the matter here, it is known that a survey has been made by the Portsmouth Street Railway Co. for an interurban line between Portsmouth and Ironton.

It is stated from good source that the Portsmouth corporation hopes this will be an inducement for the Scioto Valley Traction to extend its line south and effect through interurban service between Columbus and Huntington.—Chillicothe News.

FAYETTE WHEAT PROMISES BIG CROP

Fayette farmers are anticipating one of the largest wheat crops in recent years, and point with pride to the large fields of thrifty wheat, much of which is large enough at the present time to "hide a rabbit".

The wheat passed through the severe winter in splendid condition, and unless some unforeseen damage results, the farmers have every reason to anticipate a bumper crop.

OFFICIAL OHIO CROP REPORTS

The Ohio Agricultural Commission has just issued the following bulletin showing the condition of crops in Ohio on April 1st:

EASTERN TIME ADOPTED BY ERIE

Springfield, Ohio, April 14.—On and after today, passengers traveling on the Erie railroad will be compelled to carry two watches. If they fail to provide themselves with two tickers they will be compelled to remember the difference between eastern time and the standard time of Ohio.

The Erie railroad has adopted eastern standard time as its official time, and hereafter will dispatch all trains upon a schedule which calls for eastern time. Just what effect this will have upon the traveling public is a matter of conjecture, but it is easy to conjure up visions of swear words and trains gone but not forgotten.

Cleveland is the only city in Ohio which operates under eastern time.

Detroiter

An Advertisement of Fact For Thinking People

People who buy Automobiles are tired of windy claims; they relish intelligent analysis. Detroiter advertising at all times aims at FACTS. It has stated and proved that the Detroiter is the only popular priced automobile in America that combines a full floating rear axle, able to withstand a ton of overload; a long stroke, 32 horse-power motor; streamline body; platform rear spring (the only type that makes the shock absorber unnecessary); and expensive, power-conserving, long-lived ball-bearings throughout.

These are facts that count—that make possible 20 to 25 miles on a gallon of fuel, and 100 to the quart of lubricant. :: :

MILLIONS DON'T ATTEND SCHOOL

Washington, D. C., April 14.—Census reports show that in 1909 there were 24,000,000 children in the United States of school age, but that only 17,500,000 were enrolled in the public schools. This would indicate that there are several million children who are deprived, for one reason or another, from obtaining an education, and there is no doubt that a large number of those are prevented from attending school on account of bad roads. Furthermore, many schools in the country districts are closed for varying periods on account of the impassable condition of the roads, and many of the schools which are not closed have a nominal percentage of attendance.

While it is true that various factors contribute to increase or decrease the attendance at schools in given sections of the country, it is worthy of comment that in the states having a high percentage of improved roads, a much larger percentage of the students enrolled, regularly attend the schools than in the states having a small percentage of improved roads.

There are at the present time about 2000 consolidated rural schools in the United States. It appears that Massachusetts, Ohio and Indiana have made the greatest progress along these lines, and it is rather significant to note that in these states about one-third of the roads have been improved.

According to statistics of the Agricultural department, there was expended in 1899, $22,116 in Massachusetts for the conveyance of pupils to consolidated schools but in 1908 the expenditure for this purpose amounted to $292,213. In Indiana, the expenditure for this purpose in 1904 amounted to $86,000, while in 1908, $290,000 was expended.

This expenditure for transportation reflects, in a general way, the extent and progress of this new educational movement. It must not be understood that this is an additional burden, as the expenditure thus made is saved in other directions—that is by the decrease in the number of schools and economy in their operation.

In Indiana, Massachusetts, Ohio, and other states, the one-room, one-teacher schools are being replaced by central school houses, with a half dozen rooms and as many teachers. Wagons are sent out every day to gather up the children and to take them home again in the evening. All of the children within a radius of several miles are thus provided with the most modern school facilities. In some of these schools, courses in manual training, agriculture and home economics have been introduced, scientific apparatus utilized, and teachers having special qualifications and training employed.

The Advance of Commercialism

One is tempted strongly to join in the cry against commercialism when even the sacred places of history are changed to meet the demands of those who would gather money at any cost to sentiment.

One of the latest and most audacious bits of commercial vandalism is to be found in the proposal that of the four trolley lines that are to be built, starting from Jaffa Gate in Jerusalem, one will be constructed past Jerusalem Gate Tower, and then will wind away to Bethlehem, some six miles distant, frequently traversing the highway which many have called "the most sacred thoroughfare in the world." Many of these ancient buttresses must be torn down, according to the requirements for the new improvement plans. The extra-mural districts, now largely built up and well populated, must be brought into direct contact with the city proper, it is thought, if Jerusalem's growth is to continue normal. Hence the intended destruction of the walls.

It does seem that that is one place of all places which should be kept sacred and separate and apart from the commercial advance of the present time.

Surely in all this big world of ours there is room and the opportunity for money making enough without changing the surroundings of the Holy City, especially that portion which is intertwined with biblical history, where every brick in the walls and every stone in the highway has been kept sacred through the centuries as something which man, in his progress to wealth and power, should keep sacred as a reminder of the past and of Him whose life and sacrifice still control the Christian world.

Progress is a great thing. The honest accumulation of money and property is commendable, but it does seem that there are some places in the world which the money maker should keep sacred and some places where the march of progress is justified in halting and, if there are such places, the walls of Jerusalem and the Jaffa Gate are certainly among those places.

Sentiment cannot always be changed into money but there are certain sentiments that are above money, sentiments which keep humanity on the great road to higher and better things and which profit humanity, as a whole, more than money. Chief among such sentiments is the memory which clusters round the Holy City where more than nineteen centuries ago the history of the Christian world began.

No money making trolley lines, no scenic railway, nor anything else that commercial man is able to devise, can improve the surroundings which carry man back across the centuries to another day and another time.

Thin Woman at Advantage Over Thirty

By Dr. LOUIS DUBLIN, Life Insurance Company Statistician

UNDER THIRTY THE VERY SLIGHT WOMAN IS IN DANGER OF CONTRACTING TUBERCULOSIS, BUT AFTER THAT AGE SHE IS SAFE. AFTER THAT AGE COME THE DANGERS OF THE DEGENERATIVE DISEASES, SUCH AS HEART DISEASE, BRIGHT'S DISEASE AND LIVER TROUBLE, AND THIS IS THE TIME THAT THE THIN WOMAN HAS THE ADVANTAGE OVER HER STOUT SISTER. THE BODY OF THE HEAVIER PERSON, LIKE THE LARGER MACHINE, REQUIRES MORE FORCE AND NERVOUS ENERGY TO RUN IT, AND IT IS MORE LIKELY TO RUN DOWN.

This is clear enough, for any one can imagine the GREATER TAX ON THE HEART it would be to carry around a body weighing one hundred and seventy pounds than to carry a body weighing one hundred and twenty pounds. The same tax is put on all the other organs in the same way, and they more easily wear out. It would be almost impossible to say what was or what was not the ideal type of woman. There are NO TWO INDIVIDUALS EXACTLY ALIKE, and to say that any one type is defective seems to me to be going a little too far.

Character Remains When Everything Else In the World Is Gone

By BILLY SUNDAY, Evangelist

CHARACTER is the greatest thing in the world. You'll have character when everything else is gone. You can't lose or bury it. CHARACTER NEEDS NO EPITAPH. Character will beat the hearse back from the cemetery to bless or blight.

CHRISTIAN CHARACTER IS THE GRANDEST TYPE IN THE EYES OF GOD AND MAN. IF A MAN CLAIMS TO BE A CHRISTIAN HE OUGHT TO DO AS JESUS DOES. IF YOU SAY YOU'RE A BARBER OR A CARPENTER I EXPECT YOU TO CARRY ON THE BUSINESS DISPLAYED BY YOUR SIGN. I DON'T GO TO A HARNESS SHOP TO GET SHAVED, TO A BARBER SHOP FOR A LAWN MOWER.

If you're a Christian the world has a right to expect you to show it or else take down your sign. For a man to be a member of a church and not live a Christian life is as much out of place as a W. C. T. U. sign over a brewery. If you put up a sign declaring you are a Christian you are expected to follow that sign.

Poetry For Today

CREEDS.

If wrong has been my creed,
If on through life I've trod
Without the lights to read
The perfect signs of God;
If what's beyond us there
I have misunderstood,
I shall not need to care
If I have erred for good.

If I've been wholly wrong
In what I held to be
The proper prayer and song,
And sought the Deity
Along mistaken ways
It need not me affright.
If I have lived my ways
To what I thought was right.

I need not fear the rod
Nor judgment harsh and stern,
When I the truth to God
Before Him stand to learn,
He will not ask me then
Of doctrines or of creeds
That are disturbing men,
But he will search my deeds.

Detroit, Mich.—Thomas A. Edison, John Burroughs and Henry Ford were taking a vacation together in Florida—just loaf, they said, denying a report that they would make a study of bird life in the Everglades. Yet each is keenly interested in birds, and they found much of the enjoyment of their rest in bird study.

The vacation brings up a fact not generally known that Mr. Ford has a bird farm in Michigan, where he finds great enjoyment and much relaxation. A recent visit shows the great things Mr. Ford has done and is doing for bird life in America.

Ten miles west of Detroit lies a tract of land containing nearly 3,000 acres, which represents many individual farms purchased by Mr. Ford. On one of these farms Henry Ford was born fifty-two years ago, so he is familiar with his vast farm—the woodlands where he romped when a youngster and the swimming hole in the river Rouge, which flows through his lands. Being both a lover and student of wild birds and knowing their true value as crop protectors, he has established a bird reserve—has built homes for them and is building more and encourages the feathered tribes to live with him. Many visitors to the Ford farm wonder if there really are more birds than

VOICE THAT EARNS MILLIONS BELONGS TO MOTHER OF THREE

The almost fabulous career of Mme. Clara Butt, the world-famed English contralto, whose voice in concert has earned her more than a million dollars in the last few years, has in no wise interfered with her devotions to her family. Mme. Butt, who in private life is Mrs. Kennerley Rumford, is the mother of three fine children, and these are traveling with her continually in her American tour, which brings her to Columbus, at Memorial Hall, on April 21, as the fourth in the Frankenberger series of concerts.

Mme. Butt is the one musical sensation of the present season. Both the range and volume of her voice are phenomenal. On the basis of vibration it is estimated that in a double-forte passage her tones are equivalent to 35 singers, yet it can be modulated to the finest pianissimo, no louder than a whisper.

Chicago, April 14.—"The cold storage plant should be treated as a friend rather than an enemy of the public," G. H. Benkendorf, assistant professor of dairy husbandry in the University of Wisconsin, today told the second National Conference on Marketing and Farm Credits, meeting in joint session with the Western Economics Society.

"The consumer in the city at the present time is so far distant from the manufacturer that without modern methods of keeping the dairy products cold until they reach him they would be practically spoiled," he said.

"Hostile legislation against the cold storage houses cannot help but prove detrimental in the end. Thorough and sensible regulation is what is needed."

"Proper co-operation between the railroads and the creamery man and cheese dealer will do much toward solving the problem of marketing butter properly. Very seldom will the railroad turn down a reasonable proposition. The railroads appreciate the importance of the dairy industry, and will do all they can to co-operate with the dairymen."

The correct number of healthy birds and variety were 15 yellow hammers, 51 chaffinches, 63 greenfinches, 16 redpolls, 10 twits, 13 bullfinches, 23 blackbirds, 6 jays, 75 larks and 158 linnets, a total of 440 birds.

For attracting and keeping the wild birds at least 5,000 shrubs of various kinds have been set out. Five hundred or more bird boxes, ranging from an ordinary square design to a seventy-four room house, have been constructed. Food houses have been erected, which are daily supplied with hemp-milled seed, oatmeal, sunflower seed, etc., while suet is tacked to trees behind screens to prevent it being carried away by larger varieties.

To a casual observer extensive work of this kind might seem unprofitable, but the mere fact that results have been obtained in itself is sufficient to repay any one at all interested in so important a question.

FRANCHISE ORDINANCE IS PASSED BY CITY COUNCIL

Ordinance Granted C. H. & D. Right to Lay Three Tracks Over North and Fayette Streets, and Provides for Watchmen on North and Fayette.

OTHER CHANGES MADE BEFORE FINAL ACTION

McLean Rent Problem Draws Pointed Remarks From Attorneys and Councilmen, but Definite Action is Again Deferred—Circle Avenue Paving Ordinance is Revived—Other Matters Discussed.

With two amendments attached, the C. H. & D. franchise ordinance, was passed at the special session of the city council Monday night, and the C. H. & D. can now resume the work of constructing a new freight depot and freight yards in this city—if the franchise is acceptable.

All members were present, and some 25 or 30 visitors were also present and watched proceedings with deep interest.

After council was called to order, President Melvin suggested a ten minute recess for holding a private conference before taking up the franchise ordinance. Upon motion by Howell the recess was taken, and the councilmen filed into the private office adjoining the council chamber, and fifteen minutes later returned and resumed their seats.

Howell offered an amendment to the resolution recently adopted by council in which a portion of the city lot on Market street was offered to the U. S. Treasury department as part of a site for a government building. The amendment offered provided for the disposal of a strip 16 feet wide from the rear of the part already offered, to the alley.

Dr. Howell stated that in ascertaining the distance from the B. & O. to the Backenstoe corner, it was found that unless an additional 16 feet of the lot was included in the offer, that the site would not be within the 80 rods limit from the B. & O.

The amendment was adopted, and a revised resolution was drawn up and forwarded to the Treasury department. No extra charge was made for the additional ground.

Howell then offered an amendment to the C. H. & D. franchise ordinance to the amendment to eliminate the additional track across Main street; to substitute 13 feet instead of 25 feet for building a track south of the main track, and to strike out article three of the original ordinance. The amendment was adopted, M. Tracey voting no.

On motion by Sheets the ordinance was placed upon its third reading, M. Tracey voting against it. After some delay the reading was completed, the amendments being added. A watchman for Main and Fayette streets was carried with the other provisions of the ordinance.

Sheets offered an amendment to change the watchman from Main St. to North St., giving Fayette and North the watchmen instead of Fayette and Main. The amendment was adopted, M. Tracey and Veall voting no.

Rowe moved that the ordinance be placed upon its passage, and it passed with only one dissenting voice, M. Tracey.

Attorney Nye Gregg then addressed council in the matter of paying his client, Daniel T. McLean, the sum of $140 for certain rentals. This was done at a previous meeting, council adopting a resolution. Later protest was made against the resolution, and it was carried over to be brought up at a later meeting, and Mr. Gregg took it up accordingly at the Monday night session.

Mr. Gregg stated that the court of appeals had remanded the case back to the court of common pleas, for retrial, and that if his client had no legal right to the rentals, the city was morally bound and should recognize the right as had been the case in the adoption of the resolution. He cited references on cases somewhat similar to the McLean case. He also read extracts from the evidence submitted.

When Mr. Gregg had finished presenting his side of the case, Howell stated that the court of appeals did not remand the case back for retrial; that sub-rents had been received by the city previous to the time involved in the period for which rental was asked, and that he and Mr. Sheets had the decision of the court of appeals.

Sheets stated that when Mr. Gregg presented the case at a previous meeting that council had misunderstood "pass on the question."

Sheets stated that Mr. Gregg was asking too much of council, and that an investigation had been made and that the demands were regarded as unreasonable.

Member Whelpley withdrew from the meeting at this juncture.

Mr. Gregg insisted that council take some definite action on the question at the meeting.

Rowe moved that the matter be carried over until the next meeting.

Solicitor Gregg stated that the suit had been decided upon a technicality by the court of appeals.

Howell stated that he did not think Solicitor Gregg should take a stand against the city while employed by the city to look after its legal rights, and that a new solicitor should be employed if Solicitor Gregg could not work for the city's interests.

Solicitor Gregg then stated that he could not represent the city in the case, as he had previously been retained by Mr. McLean.

Howell then called attention to the oath of office, after which a few sharp remarks were exchanged before President Melvin called for silence.

The vote to carry the matter over was unanimous with the exception of M. Tracey, who voted no.

A petition for a street lamp at the intersection of Lakeview avenue and Jupiter street, was submitted, and referred to the service committee to report upon at the next meeting.

The Circle avenue improvement ordinance, prepared under the old council, was placed upon its first reading. The ordinance provides for paving the center of Circle avenue, a width of 14 feet, with five-foot macadam roadway on either side, and for sidewalks, gutters and curb.

Veall moved that the ordinance be read the second and third times. Some members were not certain whether all previous action had been regular, and thought a new petition should be prepared. Veall withdrew his motion, and a committee was appointed to investigate the matter and report at the next meeting.

The request to rescind an old assessment on S. Main street, brought up by Attorney Harry M. Rankin, at a previous meeting, was reported upon at the next meeting.

BIG MEETING OF PYTHIANS

Thirty candidates will receive the rank of Knight at a big meeting of Knights of Pythias, which will be held at the Castle hall of Confidence Lodge on Monday night, April 26th.

Arrangements are under way for handling the big class of candidates, and entertaining visitors from Bloomingburg, Jeffersonville, New Holland, Yatesville, Buena Vista and other surrounding lodges, and an invitation will be extended to the surrounding lodges accordingly.

The meeting will mark the close of the winter's work, and it has been the most successful in the lodge's history.

Later on it is planned to have a social gathering of all of the Knights and their families. This date has not been selected, however.

HIGH SCHOOL HORSES SHIPPED TO SHOW

The entire program for the horse show of next Monday and Tuesday is now completed.

A telegram received Tuesday from W. E. Musselman, of Indiana, announces that he has shipped for the show a class of High school and saddle horses that will be big drawing cards. There are no better of the High school class in Indiana and their booking rounds out a program already splendidly complete.

SELMA POSTOFFICE ROBBED LAST NIGHT

Yeggsmen cracked the postoffice at Selma, five miles west of South Charleston, Monday night, obtaining a snug sum of money and stamps and escaping without leaving any clew behind.

The Cedarville bloodhounds were taken to the scene to trail the robbers.

About one year ago the Selma postoffice was burglarized and the burglars escaped.

VISION MAKES HIM CONFESS.

Son of Wealthy Family Tells of Having Forged Father's Name.

Denver.—A vision of his dead mother, who pointed an accusing finger at him in his dreams, was responsible for Philip F. Perna, eighteen years old, surrendering himself to the Denver police and confessing to the forgery of his father's name on a check for $400.

Perna claims to be the son of a wealthy Philadelphia building contractor. He entered police headquarters and asked to be locked up. He says he forged the check last September, and his conscience has troubled him since the deed throughout his six months' flight.

Perna says his father's name is Joseph Perna and that the family home is in Philadelphia. He estimates his father's wealth at about $500,000.

"I went to bed," Perna said, "and my mother seemed to stand over me. She didn't say anything. She just pointed her finger at me, and her face bore a look of unspeakable contempt. I jumped up and screamed and covered my eyes with my hands.

"Finally I ran out of doors and walked miles. I knew the vision would come back unless I cleared myself up."

ASSEMBLE MIDGET DINOSAUR.

Only Six Feet Long and Has Three Horns—Found in Montana.

Washington.—There are now being assembled in the National museum the bones of a very small three horned dinosaur, which is being made the type of a new species. When assembled it will be only about six feet long and three feet high, less than one-quarter the size of the largest members of this family. The head is twenty-two inches long. In the museum are several skulls of one of the large horned dinosaurs, Triceratops, which measure six to eight feet and in one case nine feet.

The group to which the new member belongs is called the Ceratopsia, from the horns which adorn their heads—two above the eyes and one on the end of the nose.

Its jaws are like those of a turtle, there being no front teeth, but a sharp curved beak. Farther back in the jaws are cutting teeth, which show the animal to have been herbivorous.

This specimen was found with the foot and tail articulated, being the first complete and connected specimen ever obtained. The foot has four toes—the first with two bones, the second with three, the fourth with five, while only a trace of the fifth toe remains, tending to show the loss of that member through disuse, as is the case with the horse.

Displaced.

"Don't you sometimes regret your retirement from official life?"

"Well," replied the man who used to be great, "it is a little disheartening to find all the humorous stories formerly associated with me coming out with another man's name attached to them."

FEDERALS MOVING AGAINST TORREON

Surprise Rebels So Much That Villa Returns to Front

MUST FIGHT HARD TO HOLD CITY

Rebels Reported to Have Been Victorious in an Engagement in the State of Jalisco — Carranza Determined to Have an Understanding With Villa — Status of Spaniards in Mexico.

Juarez, Mexico, April 14.—Fighting is still in progress at San Pedro, east of Torreon, part of the supposedly retreating federal force having returned towards Torreon. This action of the federals, after the rebels had beaten Campa's force out of the town surprised the rebels so much that Pancho Villa hurried to the front himself, to be in personal command. Instead of pushing the campaign on to Saltillo, Villa finds himself for the present called upon to fight desperately to prevent the federals returning too close to Torreon. The rebels are greatly scattered, although it is asserted that Villa still has a force of 5,000 in the city of Torreon.

A dispatch to General Carranza from General Bannelles, sent from Sombrette, said the rebels at Calotan, in the state of Jalisco, had defeated 1,000 federals. The rebels were led by Bannelles. Included in the federal force were 400 Indians.

Carranza busied himself in preparing a reply to the request of the United States that the expelled Spaniards be dealt with leniently and that their property be not confiscated. Carranza's reply will say that as "known enemies to the Constitutionalists' cause" the Spaniards will have to go, and that their property will only be used as a military necessity, but will later be returned if they have not been active enemies of the rebellion.

That Carranza is determined, however, to have an understanding with Villa, is the growing belief here. Carranza is said to be responsible for holding the confiscated cotton in Juarez instead of attempting to sell it in the United States or shipping it to Europe, and it is said that he will tell Villa flatly, when Villa comes to Chihuahua for an interview, that confiscations except from Mexicans will have to stop. This is expected to prove the real test of strength between the two.

BUSINESS END OF TOLLS FUSS

Witnesses Examined By Senate Canals Committee.

Washington, April 14.—Two men before the canals committee, E. T. Chamberlain, federal commissioner of navigation, and Professor S. S. Huebner of the University of Pennsylvania discussed the economic question of tolls exemption in a general way.

Commissioner Chamberlain declared his belief that the United States had no right to exempt any of its shipping from payment of tolls unless it specifically provided that the government should meet the expense of passing the exempted ships through the canal, and that the exemption should not add in any way to the burden imposed upon foreign shipping.

Professor Huebner expressed no opinion on the repeat issue, confining himself to the economic discussion growing out of his statement that the house committee investigation had shown more than 90 per cent of the coastwise ships on the Atlantic coast and 50 per cent of those on the Pacific coast are controlled by railroads or conferences of steamship companies, so far as rate-making is concerned.

SLINGLUFF DEAD

Canal Dover, O., April 14.—James A. Slingluff, 76, formerly mayor of Canal Dover and for two terms treasurer of Tuscarawas county, died at his home here. He was a grandson of Judge Joseph Slingluff, one of the founders of Canal Dover.

BALL SEASON
OPENS TODAY

By Associated Press.

New York, April 13.—Granted favorable weather conditions the sixteen clubs composing the National Leagues will open the 1914 baseball season tomorrow afternoon. The familiar slogan "Play Ball" will ring out around the circuit and another six months of America's national sport inaugurated. With hardly a break the clubs will struggle for supremacy in the two leagues and the climax will come with the playing of the world's series in October between the pennant winning clubs of the two organizations.

The present season will mark the thirty-ninth year of play in the National League and the fourteenth in the American League. National League history dates back to the spring of 1876 and during the ensuing years, thirty-eight pennants have been won by eight clubs. Chicago leads with ten championships to its credit; Boston is second with eight, and New York third with seven. Pittsburgh accounted for four, Brooklyn three, Baltimore three, Providence two and Detroit one. Since the opening year of the American League play in 1900 fourteen championships have been won, of which the Philadelphia club secured five, Boston three, Chicago three and Detroit three.

During the past winter many changes have occurred in the ranks of the major leagues. The Federal League secured from the older organizations a number of veterans and promising recruit players in its efforts to establish itself as a contender for baseball patronage. Several sensational trades and the appointment of new managers also caused decided changes in the combinations of various clubs. The National League was particularly active in this respect, the changes beginning with the selection of a new president in the person of John K. Tener and extending down through the ranks of owners, managers and players.

KILLIFER EXPELLED

New York, April 14.—William Killifer, the well-known catcher awarded to the Philadelphia National League club by a Michigan court a few days ago, has fallen into disgrace with his associates of the baseball players' fraternity. President David L. Fultz of this organization announced that the Quaker backstop has been expelled from membership for contract jumping.

ATHLETICS FIRST

Philadelphia, April 14.—The Athletics' first championship for 1914 was captured here in the tenth inning of the final interleague game with the Phillies, when Pitcher Pennock scored the deciding run by a wild but successful dash from third base to the plate when Murphy grounded to Lobert.

30 THOUSAND FANS AT GAME

Baltimore, Md., April 14.—Baltimore more celebrated its reappearance into major league baseball by a delirious baseball frenzy that has not been seen here since the old four-time champions returned in 1904 after a triumphal western tour bringing their first pennant with them. Thirty thousand wild-eyed fans gave the Terrapins an encouraging start in the race for the Federal league championship. The governor of the state, the mayor of Baltimore, the mayor of Buffalo and President James A. Gilmore, Charles Wegmann of Chicago, and R. B. and George S. Ward of Brooklyn were present. Score:

EIGHT HOUR LAW STIRS SUFFRAGISTS

Now Want Probe of Living Cost In Washington.

Washington.—The passage a short time ago of the Peters-La Follette bill limiting the hours of labor for women in the District of Columbia, exclusive of stenographers, to eight a day has by no means settled the woman labor problem in Washington. It has brought the problem into the field of open discussion, with a result that more people are talking about the problems of women workers in the capital than ever before.

The center of the discussion is the District branch of the National Consumers' league, whose operations are directed by Miss Constance D. Leupp. Inasmuch as the activities of the Consumers' league here are typical of the kind of work which is being done by the same or other organizations throughout the country, the matter is really one of more than local interest.

The Consumers' league has laid out a definite program of action. Having passed the eight hour law, it is now asking the senate to appropriate $6,000 for study of the cost of living in the District of Columbia to be made by the federal bureau of labor statistics. Having secured officially the statistics of living—and a favorable report on the resolution in question indicates that the chances are in favor of the inquiry's being ordered—the Consumers' league will next press for a minimum wage law.

Plenty of Means.

Dinks—I see Rouge has bought an automobile. I didn't think he had sufficient means to do that. Winks—Oh, he has all sorts of means of borrowing money and just as many means of spending it.

White and Negro.

By natural increase the white population about triples itself in forty years, while the black doubles itself. Hence the latter must form an ever diminishing fraction of the whole population.—New York American.

MARKETING DOWN TO FINE POINT

By Associated Press.

Chicago, April 14.—Co-operation and advertising make possible the uniform distribution of California citrus fruits at a cost of less than five per cent, said H. J. Eustace, professor of horticulture at Michigan Agricultural College, addressing the Second National Conference on Marketing and Farm Credits meeting with the Western Economic Society today.

Mr. Eustace described the methods of the California Fruit Growers' exchange from the time the fruit was picked by the 6,500 growers, until it was sold to the retailers on the markets throughout the country. This exchange, he said, was probably the largest and most successful co-operative organization of fruit growers in the world. Over sixty per cent of all the citrus fruits grown in California was picked, shipped and sold by the exchange.

The yearly volume of business amounted to twenty millions made up entirely of returns for fruit and receipts for supplies necessary to grow and market the fruit.

The low marketing cost of five per cent was one reason why the number of the California Fruit Growers' exchange could have his fruit placed on a market 3,000 miles from his orchard and make a profit often greater than that realized by a local fruit grower from growing apples.

Well managed co-operation among so many fruit growers had made possible a uniform distribution of their crops over the United States and Canada. The markets in some places were not oversupplied and other places undersupplied. There is probably no fruit so thoroughly and uniformly distributed over the country as California grown oranges and lemons. It is almost unheard of to find a state in the most remote regions where a California orange cannot be purchased at a nominal price at any time during nine or ten months in the year.

In addition to co-operating in the packing, shipping and selling citrus fruits it had been possible and had been found desirable for the members of the exchange to co-operate in the purchasing of supplies.

OFFERS STUDENTS A CHANCE.

Government to Provide Outdoor Work For College Men.

Washington.—The United States forestry service and geological survey are offering many positions to college men for vacation work. Health and endurance are the two biggest requirements for the positions, which will keep the collegians out of doors the greater part of the time. The students will have most of their expenses paid and at the same time draw good wages.

The geological survey desires to employ a limited number of men during the summer months to assist geologists in their field work or to serve as camp hands. Only those who are fit mentally and physically for rough outdoor work are eligible. The appointees are required to pay their traveling expenses to the field of operation, all other expenses incurred while under the supervision of the survey being met by the government.

The forestry service offers a more limited form of employment. In addition to the permanent force, temporary assistants are employed during the summer months as fire guards or when other special work requires addition to the regular forest force.

Only men will be selected who are qualified by familiarity in the district in which the work is required. No examination is necessary, but guards may be called upon to perform work similar to that of a ranger.

THAW HAS SCORED A VICTORY

By Associated Press.

Concord, N. H., April 14.—Harry Kendall Thaw's petition for a writ of habeas corpus was granted by Judge Edgar Aldrich, of the United States District Court. The court said however, that no order would be issued for his discharge from custody until arrangements have been completed to take the case to the United States Supreme Court on appeal.

Thaw's petition for bail the court left undetermined, taking the ground that it would be more appropriate for this to be passed on by the Supreme Court. The result of the decision leaves unchanged his guardianship and condition for the present, but the case will go to the highest court in the land with the decision of the lower court in his favor. The petition contains more than 10,000 words and discusses exhaustively the various phases of the case.

The court says that the report of the commission, supplemented by his own observation in several hearings, satisfies him that any supposed danger to the community by Thaw's liberty is so remote as to not warrant his being held in custody.

"I am not at all certain that I am not denying a plain right in denying this petition, and doing the petitioner an injustice by leaving the question undecided," said the court.

NOT ROSY

Washington, D. C., April 14.—Only by extraordinary steps can the Thaw case be considered by the United States Supreme court before next October, as the court plans to suspend the hearing of all cases on April 25, and hear no more arguments until October, unless some extraordinary occasion should demand. This probably means that Thaw will remain in custody until October. Those posted on court procedure think it may be Christmas before the case is finally passed upon.

tion between Washington and Tampico might put off the final determination two or three days. The tensity of the situation is emphasized by the caution with which officials guard every statement relative to Rear Admiral Mayo's demand for a salute. It is understood that the Cabinet had information today that President Huerta persists in declining to accede to Admiral Mayo's demand. It is also understood that Huerta's stand is not irrevocable, but is couched in language which indicates that he is still open to conviction that the salute should be given if Mexican honor is not thereby punished.

Naval officers are insistent that Admiral Mayo should be sustained in his demand with the allowance of sufficient time for the Mexican officers to consider the proposition. This view was shared by some members of the Cabinet, when the subject was laid before them today.

KOELHER WAS FOUND GUILTY

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 14.—Major Ben M. Koelher, of the Coast artillery, tried by a general court martial last month at Fort Perry, N. Y., was found guilty of immoral conduct and sentenced to dismissal. This announcement was made by Secretary Garrison, who said the case had not been acted upon by war department officers. It is subject to review by Gen. Crowder and the chief of the army, as well as Sec. Garrison, before it goes to President Wilson for final settlement.

HUERTA SPURNS MAYO'S DEMAND

Vera Cruz, April 14.—General Gustave Maas, the federal commander at Vera Cruz, speaking with reference to the arrest of an American detachment from the Dolphin at Tampico and the demand by the American admiral for satisfaction for the insult to the American flag, said that the Mexican government had ordered General Morelos Zaragoza not to accede to Admiral Mayo's demand, which was that the American flag should be saluted within 24 hours, considering that such a step would be highly derogatory to national dignity and was also uncalled for, as absolutely no insults had been offered to the American flag.

Atlantic Fleet Swarming Southward To Force General Huerta To Make Apology

Secretary of the Navy, Following a Cabinet Meeting, Ordered Atlantic Fleet to Steam at Once to Mexico—Demand Issued Calling on Huerta to Salute the Stars and Stripes Within 24 Hours After Receipt of the Word—American Government Determined to Have Satisfaction, But Desires Amicable Settlement.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 14.—A general concentration of the Atlantic fleet at Tampico was ordered by Secretary of the Navy Daniels, after a Cabinet meeting in which President Wilson laid before them the necessity for backing up Rear Admiral Mayo, in his demand that the American flag be saluted by the Huerta commander.

A demand to the Federal Commander at Tampico, to salute the stars and stripes within twenty-four hours, in apology for the arrest of American marines there, last Thursday, was prepared. It is understood the demand gives the Huerta commander twenty-four hours' time after receipt to comply.

Officials said that while no ultimatum had been issued to the Huerta government, the mobilization of the fleet at Tampico was intended to put the American government in position to enforce their demands, if necessary.

Naval officers eagerly transmitted the orders of Secretary Daniels to the fleet and a scene of activity and anticipation eagerly followed. The feeling that the Washington government had determined to show the Huerta government of the fixed determination on an apology and public salute, pervaded official circles.

Members of the cabinet are hopeful that no further step would be required to secure compliance with the United States' demand, but they privately admitted that the Washington government was getting ready to enforce demands if they meet with resistance.

The mobilization of the fleet under such circumstances as occurred today immediately raised in official circles the question of whether the landing of marines at Tampico in satisfaction for the arrest of the marines last Thursday, would be an act of war.

It had been repeatedly pointed out that the landing of armed forces without the permission of the government in control of the territory, was regarded here as an act of war, and might carry with it intervention.

It was pointed out today, however, by those familiar with the circumstances that should the Huerta government fail to resist an aggressive step and retire, no further serious consequences might result and the United States might feel disposed not to press the affair any further. Inasmuch as the American government has not recognized any government, but regards the southern republic as being in a state of anarchy, it has long been realized here that unusual steps might be taken without arousing grave complications.

John Lind, the President's special envoy, now in Washington, is known to have held for some time the view that more drastic measures should be used in dealing with the Huerta government. He is understood to have told President Wilson and Secretary Bryan that Huerta would delay and evade the issue as long as the United States seemed disinclined to use force.

This feeling has long been growing in administration circles, and President Wilson has shown in talk with callers his rigid determination not to temporize with the Huerta government, but to insist on the demands made upon Huerta.

The naval demonstration ordered today is the outgrowth of the events of the last eight months, particularly since the contending factions have disregarded the rights of foreigners.

There was evidence that the President has elected to use force in dealing with the situation, and demonstrate to the Huerta government the policy of the United States.

When assembled, the fleet under Admiral Badger will have under his command, twenty-odd war ships. Admiral Fletcher, at Vera Cruz, now has the battleship Florida and the transport Prairie, with 600 marines.

Admiral Mayo, at Tampico, has the Utah, Connecticut,

Minnesota, the cruisers Des Moines, Chester, Dolphin, the San Francisco and 600 marines.

The hospital ship, Solace, will join Admiral Mayo at Tampico in a day or two. Admiral Badger, at Hampton Roads, has the Arkansas, New Jersey, Vermont, New Hampshire in addition to the battleships Georgia, Virginia, Nebraska, Rhode Island, now at the Atlantic Coast Navy Yards, which may be attached to the fleet.

It is expected that Admiral Badger will start his fleet tomorrow and arrive at Tampico this week.

It was learned that Charge d' Affairs, Nelson O'Shaughnessy, reported earlier in the day that Huerta actually had promised to fire a salute to the Dolphin, but conditioned it on a salute in response.

SEVEN ARE OVERCOME

By Associated Press.

Boston, Mass., April 14.—Seven lives were lost in a fire which wrecked The Melvin, a five story brick apartment house at Commonwealth and Long Avenue, in the Alston district, early today. It was feared one other occupant, missing for several hours after the fire, had been burned. The loss was $60,000.

Miss Alice Shackford and Mrs. Edith Bemis met death by jumping from the fourth and fifth floors. The bodies of the other victims were found on the fifth floor, two hours after the fire. All had been suffocated.

The fire started in the basement near a waste paper chute, and the flames shot up through the elevator. The whole building was ablaze when the firemen arrived. No one had time to dress and there was considerable suffering from exposure in the chill air of the early morning. The survivors were sheltered in near-by apartment houses.

COX APPOINTEES

By Associated Press.

Columbus, Ohio, April 14.—Dr. H. C. Matlack, of Cincinnati, was reappointed member of the State Dental Board, by Governor Cox for a term ending April 6, 1919. Henry C. Gray, of Hamilton, was reappointed Commissioner of soldiers' claims for two years.

TAMPICO SITUATION GROWS IN INTENSITY

Government Officials Sift the Facts Concerning the Arrest of American Marines and Mayo's Demand for an Apology—Will Thoroughly Investigate the Affair Before Taking Drastic Steps—Naval Officers Want to Uphold Mayo, After Giving Mexicans Due Time to Comply.

By Associated Press.

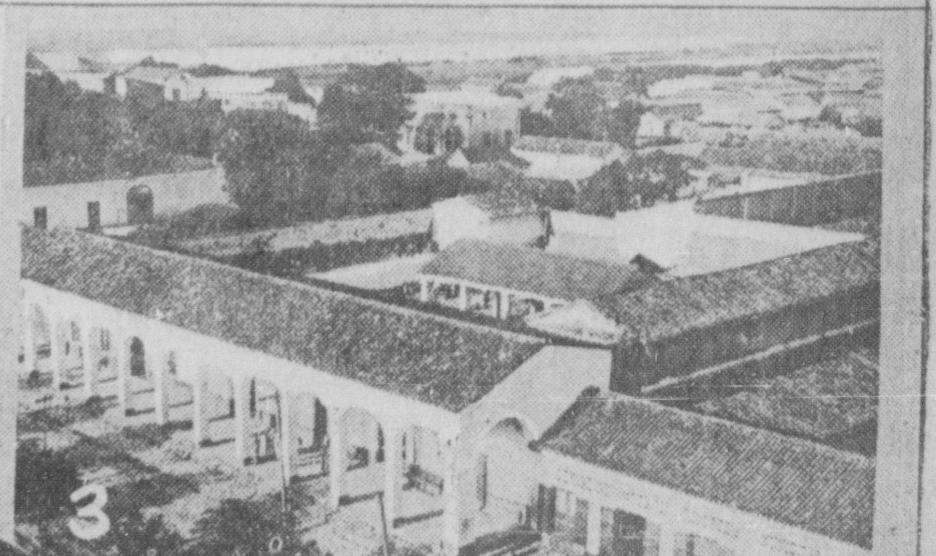

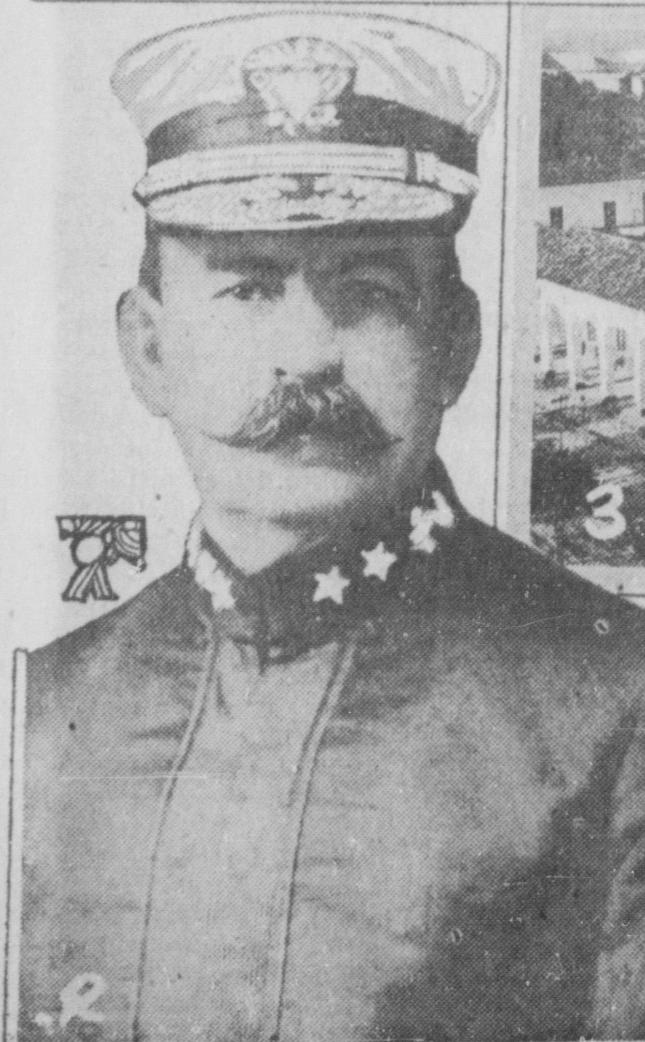

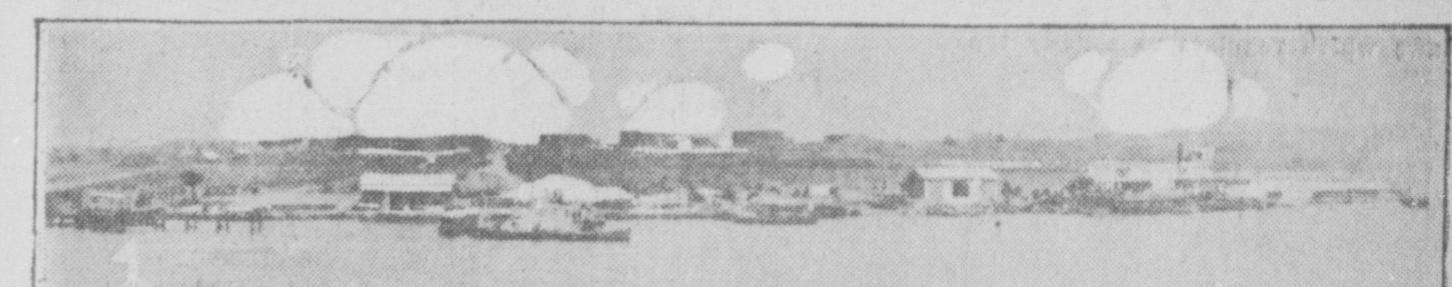

Washington, D. C., April 14.—After a conference between President Wilson, Secretary Bryan and John Lind, and after a Cabinet meeting today, it was decided that before the Washington government should proceed further in backing up Rear Admiral Mayo in his demand that the Mexicans salute the American flag at Tampico in apology for the recent arrest of American marines, a further investigation will be made of the facts surrounding the incident. All officials are silent on the situation, an admittedly tense one. Cabinet members let it be known, however, that the delay did not exhibit a possible change in President Wilson's attitude, but a determination to investigate Huerta's statements and Rear Admiral Mayo's reports.

The administration wishes to be fully informed before going further. It is pointed out that the difficulty of communication

Vera Cruz, April 14.—Rear Admiral Mayo's latest dispatch from Tampico, received at the American consulate, says that oil tanks are burning and the fire is spreading and that many bullets and shells are falling in the neutral zone, but that so far all the noncombatants are out of harm's way. Urgent orders were received here to furnish with beds and cots every empty or otherwise available house here, as a great exodus

CREEDS.

If wrong has been my creed,
If on through life I've trod
Without the lights to read
The perfect signs of God;
If what's beyond us there
I have misunderstood,
I shall not need to care
If I have erred for good.

If I've been wholly wrong
In what I held to be
The proper prayer and song,
And sought the Deity
Along mistaken ways
It need not me afraid.
If I have lived my ways
To what I thought was right.

I need not fear the rod
Nor judgment harsh and stern,
When I the truth to God
Before Him stand to learn,
He will not ask me then
Of doctrines or of creeds
That are disturbing men,
But he will search my deeds.

Character Remains When Everything Else In the World Is Gone

By BILLY SUNDAY, Evangelist

CHARACTER is the greatest thing in the world. You'll have character when everything else is gone. You can't lose or bury it.

CHARACTER NEEDS NO EPITAPH. Character will beat the hearse back from the cemetery to bless or blight.

CHRISTIAN CHARACTER IS THE GRANDEST TYPE IN THE EYES OF GOD AND MAN. IF A MAN CLAIMS TO BE A CHRISTIAN HE OUGHT TO DO AS JESUS DOES. IF YOU SAY YOU'RE A BARBER OR A CARPENTER I EXPECT YOU TO CARRY ON THE BUSINESS DISPLAYED BY YOUR SIGN. I DON'T GO TO A HARNESS SHOP TO GET SHAVED, TO A BARBER SHOP FOR A LAWN MOWER.

If you're a Christian the world has a right to expect you to show it or else take down your sign. For a man to be a member of a church and not live a Christian life is as much out of place as a W. C. T. U. sign over a brewery. If you put up a sign declaring you are a Christian you are expected to follow that sign.

FORD'S RESERVE HAVEN OF BIRDS

Feathered Tribe Fed and Protected on 3,000 Acre Tract.

ALL KINDS OF BIRDS THERE

Known as Home to the Pets, Although Many of Them Spend the Winter in a Warmer Climate—Shrubs Especially Planted to Produce Food and Places for Nests.

Detroit, Mich.—Thomas A. Edison, John Burroughs and Henry Ford were taking a vacation together in Florida—just a loaf, they said, denying a report that they would make a study of bird life in the Everglades. Yet each is keenly interested in birds, and they found much of the enjoyment of their rest in bird study.

The vacation brings up a fact not generally known that Mr. Ford has a bird farm in Michigan, where he finds great enjoyment and much relaxation. A recent visit shows the great things Mr. Ford has done and is doing for bird life in America.

Ten miles west of Detroit lies a tract of land containing nearly 3,000 acres, which represents many individual farms purchased by Mr. Ford. On one of these farms Henry Ford was born fifty-two years ago, so he is familiar with his vast farm—the woodlands where he romped when a youngster and the swimming hole in the river Rouge, which flows through his lands. Being both a lover and student of wild birds and knowing their true value as crop protectors, he has established a bird reserve—has built homes for them and is building more and encourages the feathered tribes to live with him.

Many visitors to the Ford farm wonder if there really are more birds than are common to the surrounding country, in city parks, etc., but if an early morning observation were made near the feeding stations, in the swamp regions where weeds are abundant and along the river banks, it would reveal the feathered visitors that come for the suet on trees and for the grain placed for them in familiar places, which will easily convince one of the greater abundance and larger variety of birds than are common to such places where food is not supplied for them.

Two years ago Mr. Ford, on a visit to England, took a great fancy to a pair of Irish larks and was told that the birds would be sent as a present to his Dearborn farm. Mr. Ford returned to his home and nearly forgot his Irish larks, but the promise of his English friend was kept. A cable message announced the departure of the larks, accompanied by a man and about 500 other birds of various varieties.

This was indeed a surprise to Mr. Ford, who at once arranged to have his secretary, E. G. Liebold, himself a bird fancier, meet the birds upon their arrival in New York.

The English attendant experienced all the horrors of seasickness on his way over, and consequently his mammal family of 500 did not receive the necessary attention they should, the result being a loss of 20 per cent by death.

For the last leg of the long journey a special car was chartered as the safest way to get the birds "home," where they finally arrived.

The correct number of healthy birds and variety were 15 yellowhammers, 51 chaffinches, 63 greenfinches, 16 redpolls, 10 twits, 13 bullfinches, 23 blackbirds, 6 jays, 75 larks and 158 finches, a total of 440 birds.

For attracting and keeping the wild birds at least 5,000 shrubs of various kinds have been set out. Five hundred or more bird boxes, ranging from an ordinary square design to a seventy-four room house, have been constructed. Food houses have been erected, which are daily supplied with hemp, millet seed, oatmeal, sunflower seed, etc., while suet is tacked to trees behind screens to prevent it being carried away by larger varieties.

To a casual observer extensive work of this kind might seem unprofitable, but the mere fact that results have been obtained in itself is sufficient to repay any one at all interested in so important a question.

COLD STORAGE PLANT FRIEND TO THE PUBLIC

By Associated Press.

Chicago, April 14.—"The cold storage plant should be treated as a friend rather than an enemy of the public," G. H. Benkendorf, assistant professor of dairy husbandry in the University of Wisconsin, today told the second National Conference on Marketing and Farm Credits, meeting in joint session with the Western Economics Society.

"The consumer in the city at the present time is so far distant from the manufacturer that without modern methods of keeping the dairy products cold until they reach him they would be practically spoiled," he said.

"Hostile legislation against the cold storage houses cannot help but prove detrimental in the end. Thorough and sensible regulation is what is needed."

"Proper co-operation between the railroads and the creamery man and cheese dealer will do much toward solving the problem of marketing butter properly. Very seldom will the railroad turn down a reasonable proposition. The railroads appreciate the importance of the dairy industry, and will do all they can to co-operate with the dairyman."

FRANCHISE ORDINANCE IS PASSED BY CITY COUNCIL

Ordinance Granted C. H. & D. Right to Lay Three Tracks Over North and Fayette Streets, and Provides for Watchmen on North and Fayette.

OTHER CHANGES MADE BEFORE FINAL ACTION

McLean Rent Problem Draws Pointed Remarks From Attorneys and Councilmen, but Definite Action is Again Deferred—Circle Avenue Paving Ordinance is Revived—Other Matters Discussed.

With two amendments attached, the C. H. & D. franchise ordinance was passed at the special session of the city council Monday night, and the C. H. & D. can now resume the work of constructing a new freight depot and freight yards in this city—if the franchise is acceptable.

All members were present, and some 25 or 30 visitors were also present and watched proceedings with deep interest.

After council was called to order, President Melvin suggested a ten minute recess for holding a private conference before taking up the franchise ordinance. Upon motion by Howell the recess was taken, and the councilmen fled into the private office adjoining the council chamber, and fifteen minutes later returned and resumed their seats.

Howell offered an amendment to the resolution recently adopted by council in which a portion of the city lot on Market street was offered to the U. S. Treasury department as part of a site for a government building. The amendment offered provided for the disposal of a strip 16 feet wide from the rear of the part already offered, to the alley.

Dr. Howell stated that in ascertaining the distance from the B. & O. to the Backenstoe corner, it was found that unless an additional 16 feet of the lot was included in the offer, that the site would not be within the 80 rods limit from the B. & O.

The amendment was adopted, and a revised resolution was drawn up and forwarded to the Treasury department. No extra charge was made for the additional ground.

Howell then offered an amendment to the C. H. & D. franchise ordinance to eliminate the additional track across Main street; to substitute 13 feet instead of 25 feet for building a track south of the main track, and to strike out article three of the original ordinance. The amendment was adopted, M. Tracey voting no.

On motion by Sheets the ordinance was placed upon its third reading, M. Tracey voting against it. After some delay the reading was completed, the amendments being added. A watchman for Main and Fayette streets was carried with the other provisions of the ordinance.

Sheets offered an amendment to change the watchman from Main St. to North St., giving Fayette and North the watchmen instead of Fayette and Main. The amendment was adopted, M. Tracey and Veall voting no.

Rowe moved that the ordinance be placed upon its passage, and it passed with only one dissenting voice, M. Tracey.

Attorney Nye Gregg then addressed council in the matter of paying up by Attorney Harry M. Rankin, at his client, Daniel T. McLean, the sum a previous meeting, was reported up.

of $140 for certain rentals. This was done at a previous meeting, council adopting a resolution. Later protest was made against the resolution, and it was carried over to be brought up at a later meeting, and Mr. Gregg took it up accordingly at the Monday night session.

Mr. Gregg stated that the court of appeals had remanded the case back to the court of common pleas, for retrial, and that if his client had no legal right to the rentals, the city was morally bound and should recognize the right as had been the case in the adoption of the resolution. He cited references on cases somewhat similar to the McLean case. He also read extracts from the evidence submitted.

When Mr. Gregg had finished presenting his side of the case, Howell stated that the court of appeals did not remand the case back for retrial; that sub-rents had been received by the city previous to the time involved in the period for which rental was asked, and that he and Mr. Sheets had the decision of the court of appeals.

Sheets stated that when Mr. Gregg presented the case at a previous meeting that council had misunderstood the situation.

P. Tracey moved that council "pass on the question."

Sheets stated that Mr. Gregg was asking too much of council, and that an investigation had been made and that the demands were regarded as unreasonable.

Member Whitley withdrew from the meeting at this juncture.

Mr. Gregg insisted that council take some definite action on the question at the meeting.

Rowe moved that the matter be carried over until the next meeting.

Solicitor Gregg stated that the suit had been decided upon a technicality by the court of appeals.

Howell stated that he did not think Solicitor Gregg should take a stand against the city while employed by the city to look after its legal rights, and that a new solicitor should be employed if Solicitor Gregg could not work for the city's interests.

Solicitor Gregg then stated that he could not represent the city in the case, as he had previously been retained by Mr. McLean.

Howell then called attention to the oath of office, after which a few sharp remarks were exchanged before President Melvin called for silence.

The vote to carry the matter over was unanimous with the exception of M. Tracey, who voted no.

A petition for a street lamp at the intersection of Lakeview avenue and Jupiter street, was submitted, and referred to the service committee to report upon at the next meeting.

The Circle avenue improvement ordinance, prepared under the old council, was placed upon its first reading. The ordinance provides for paving the center of Circle avenue, a width of 14 feet, with five-foot macadam roadway on either side, and for sidewalks, gutters and curb.

Veall moved that the ordinance be read the second and third times. Some members were not certain whether all previous action had been regular, and thought a new petition should be prepared. Veall withdrew his motion, and a committee was appointed to investigate the matter and report at the next meeting.

The request to rescind an old assessment on S. Main street, brought up by Attorney Harry M. Rankin, at his client, Daniel T. McLean, the sum a previous meeting, was reported up. on by Rowe, who thought the old assessment should be paid into the treasury. The report was accepted, M. Tracey voting against it.

The committee appointed to investigate the paving of North North street was granted more time, and will report at the next meeting. The Commercial bank's bid on the alley paving bonds, was accepted.

Auditor McFadden asked for immediate action upon the selling of some $2750 in bonds for repairing streets. The bids on the bonds will be in the hands of the Ways and Means committee.

ALLEN-SMITH CASE

The trial of the case of Frank M. Allen vs. Thomas T. Smith, of Leesburg, began in the Common Pleas court today. The case is the outgrowth of injuries received by Mr. Allen a few years ago when his buggy upset into the ditch a few miles south of town on the Leesburg pike, and for which he asks judgment in the sum of $20,000, claiming that Smith's auto was traveling very rapidly and on the wrong side of the road; that as it bore toward him he drove to the edge of the roadway, and as the auto passed the horse lunged and upset the rig in the ditch.

In a recent issue in calling attention to the assignment of this case for trial and the employment of Judge Hidy therein on behalf of the plaintiff, it was stated in reference to the accident to Mr. Allen as follows:

"His horse became frightened when the Smith auto whizzed very closely by his horse and the animal jumped into the ditch and overturned the rig."

The defendant sets up his claim that in passing Mr. Allen his auto did not go at any unusual speed or unreasonably close to his horse, that the horse did not scare at the time the auto passed the buggy or at any other time, and did not jump into the ditch, but that the accident was the result of Mr. Allen carelessly permitting the right wheels of his buggy to go over the bank of the ditch at a steep point therein causing the buggy to upset, and that this did not occur until the automobile had passed by him some 300 feet and at the time the automobile was passing around some log wagons which were about that distance south of where the buggy upset.

Member Whitley withdrew from the meeting at this juncture.

Mr. Gregg insisted that council take some definite action on the question at the meeting.

Rowe moved that the matter be carried over until the next meeting.

Solicitor Gregg stated that the suit had been decided upon a technicality by the court of appeals.

Howell stated that he did not think Solicitor Gregg should take a stand against the city while employed by the city to look after its legal rights, and that a new solicitor should be employed if Solicitor Gregg could not work for the city's interests.

Solicitor Gregg then stated that he could not represent the city in the case, as he had previously been retained by Mr. McLean.

Howell then called attention to the oath of office, after which a few sharp remarks were exchanged before President Melvin called for silence.

The vote to carry the matter over was unanimous with the exception of M. Tracey, who voted no.

A petition for a street lamp at the intersection of Lakeview avenue and Jupiter street, was submitted, and referred to the service committee to report upon at the next meeting.

The Circle avenue improvement ordinance, prepared under the old council, was placed upon its first reading. The ordinance provides for paving the center of Circle avenue, a width of 14 feet, with five-foot macadam roadway on either side, and for sidewalks, gutters and curb.

Veall moved that the ordinance be read the second and third times. Some members were not certain whether all previous action had been regular, and thought a new petition should be prepared. Veall withdrew his motion, and a committee was appointed to investigate the matter and report at the next meeting.

The request to rescind an old assessment on S. Main street, brought up by Attorney Harry M. Rankin, at his client, Daniel T. McLean, the sum a previous meeting, was reported up.

FEDERALS MOVING AGAINST TORREON

Surprise Rebels So Much That Villa Returns to Front

MUST FIGHT HARD TO HOLD CITY

Rebels Reported to Have Been Victorious in an Engagement in the State of Jalisco — Carranza Determined to Have an Understanding With Villa—Status of Spaniards in Mexico.

Juarez, Mexico, April 14.—Fighting is still in progress at San Pedro, east of Torreon, part of the supposedly retreating federal force having returned towards Torreon. This action of the federales, after the rebels had beaten Campa's force out of the town surprised the rebels so much that Pancho Villa hurried to the front himself, to be in personal command. Instead of pushing the campaign on to Saltillo, Villa finds himself for the present called upon to fight desperately to prevent the federales returning too close to Torreon. The rebels are greatly scattered, although it is

Witnesses Examined By Senate Canals Committee.

Washington, April 14.—Two men before the canals committee, E. T. Chamberlain, federal commissioner of navigation, and Professor S. S. Huebner of the University of Pennsylvania discussed the economic question of tolls exemption in a general way.

Commissioner Chamberlain declared his belief that the United States had no right to exempt any of its shipping from payment of tolls unless it specifically provided that the government should meet the expense of passing the exempted ships through the canal, and that the exemption should not add in any way to the burden imposed upon foreign shipping.

Professor Huebner expressed no opinion on the repeat issue, confining himself to the economic discussion growing out of his statement that the house committee investigation had shown more than 90 per cent of the coastwise ships on the Atlantic coast and 50 per cent of those on the Pacific coast are controlled by railroads or conferences of steamship companies, so far as rate-making is concerned.

MISS WILSON TO WED ON FRIDAY

Washington, April 14.—Although there has been no formal announcement from the White House of the date for the wedding of Secretary McAdoo and Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson, youngest daughter of the president and Mrs. Wilson, friends say Friday, May 8, has been tentatively selected. The wedding will be private.

TRYING JAMAICA GINGER DRUNKS

URGEVILLE, O., April 14.—Two weeks ago seven saloons quit business here as result of a local option election. Police officers wondered at the large number of drunken men that were continually on the streets. An investigation followed and it developed that Jamaica ginger was the big producer. Every drug store and grocery in the city has been dispensing the ginger. One man confessed to having purchased 11 bottles in four days.

MR. ROOSEVELT FOR GOVERNOR

New York, April 14.—Theodore Roosevelt is expected back from the jungle about May 15 or 20. His fellow Progressives fear that he has given up the idea of going to Madrid for the marriage of his son Kermit to Miss Belle Willard, daughter of Joseph Willard, American ambassador to Spain. Progressives through out the state are preparing to hit the colonial a body blow as soon as he lands in the form of an irresistible demand that he run for governor this fall. This demand, first publicly voiced by ex-State Chairman W. H. Hotchkiss, has spread until all the state leaders with the exception of George W. Perkins were at least averse. Mr. Perkins still thinks that Mr. Roosevelt's friends should not ask anything of him until the presidential campaign of 1916.

LEADER FINED

Cincinnati, O., April 14.—A sentence of 10 days in jail and a fine of $200 was assessed by Superior Judge Oppenheimer against David Fustel, a business agent of the International Garment Workers' union. Fustel was charged with contempt of court for alleged violation of an order against intimidation of nonunion employees of a local garment factory.

Women Buy For Farm Colony. Riehton, Miss.—Mrs. L. A. Johnson of Chicago, representing the Chicago Business Women's Commerce Association, has visited Riehton to inspect the 1,080 acres of land which have been bought by business women of Chicago. The land was acquired by these women for farm sites, and it lies just two miles west of Riehton. It is the association's intention to colonize this land with young women, who are to develop and farm it under the direction of an expert. They intend building a model dormitory and dairy farm.

Electric Blasts In Gold Mines. Gold mining companies of the Rand field, South Africa, have been experimenting with electric blasting with a view of reducing the danger of miner's phthisis, a disease ascribed to the fine dust that results from blasting. By using electric systems the firing can be done from the surface and the air can be cleared of the fine dust before the miners need to enter the mine.

ASKS INQUIRY ON CUT IN WAGE

Washington, April 14.—Representative Lobeck of Nebraska Democrat, introduced in the house a resolution calling for an inquiry into the causes for the reduction of wages and working forces in the iron and steel industry. The resolution directs the secretary of commerce to make an inquiry into the situation. It provides that the secretary "shall ascertain all the facts relating to the proposed reduction of wages and reasons therefor, and report the facts to the house with such recommendations as in his judgment the exigencies of the situation may require."

A HARD FIGHT

Cincinnati, O., April 14.—The condition of John C. Mayo, capitalist and member of the Democratic national committee from Kentucky, was such that another transfusion of blood from the veins of his brother was made necessary. Attending physicians stated that the patient was in a decidedly dangerous condition and that the effect of the operation was problematical.

WOMEN BURNED

Cleveland, O., April 14.—Mrs. Ernestine Ausmuth, 20, was fatally burned about the body when her clothing caught fire as she was about to take a cover off a stove in the kitchen of her home. She ran screaming to the street, where Mrs. Fred Daly, who lives below Mrs. Ausmuth, tried to beat out the flames with her hands. Mrs. Daly's clothing caught fire and she was seriously burned.

In Luck. "It's no fun being married. My wife is coming to me all the time and asking for money."

"You're lucky. I have to ask my wife always for money when I want any."

Washington, April 14.—E. P. Holcombe, 50, chief supervising inspector in the Indian service, committed suicide here by shooting himself in the head. Mr. Holcombe's body was found on a bed in a room of the National hotel. Mr. Holcombe had been in bad health for many months.

'LEGGERS SOAKED

Springfield, O., April 14.—Fines aggregating $1,125 were assessed in police court here in bootlegging cases against defendants. These cases were prosecuted by the state, evidence having been secured by detectives employed by the state liquor license board.

THE PLAGUE IN HAVANA

Havana, April 14.—Four new cases of the bubonic plague have developed here in the infected zone. The sanitary department is now depopulating three entire blocks. About 4,500 people are being removed from the buildings in the three blocks of the infected zone.

WOMAN BURNED

Canton, O., April 14.—Mme. Luisa Tetrazzini, the famous opera singer, arose from her seat in a motion picture theater and sang to stop panic caused by the burning of draperies drawn across the exit doors. The frightened people stopped their mad rush.

FAINTS IN COURT

Cincinnati, O., April 14.—In the juvenile court Judge Gorman awarded the custody of Jesse Mae Lloyd or Irene Whitehead to Mrs. J. F. Lloyd, her foster mother. Mrs. Robert Whitehead, the child's real mother, fainted and afterward became hysterical when she heard the verdict.

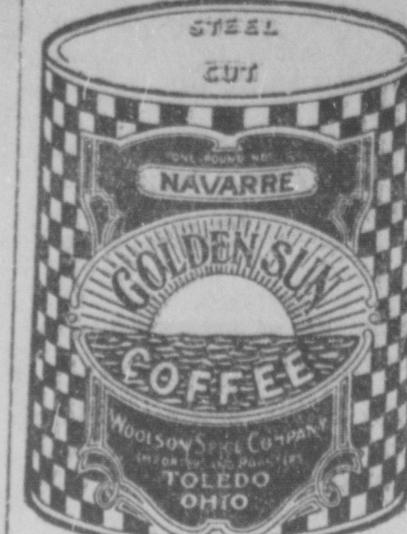

SWALLOWS ACID

Sandusky, O., April 14.—Relatives and friends were unable to explain the suicide of Carl Leslie here. After sending Easter flowers and a note to Miss Margaret Zech, his fiancee, Leslie drank four ounces of carbolic acid and was found dead at his home.

GIRL RUN DOWN

Columbus, O., April 14.—Alice Johnson, 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnson, is dying, with her left leg severed below the knee and her left hand partly cut off, as a result of being struck by a streetcar.

SCOOP The Cub
ReporterBALL SEASON
OPENS TODAY

By Associated Press.

New York, April 13.—Granted favorable weather conditions the sixteen clubs composing the National Leagues will open the 1914 baseball season tomorrow afternoon. The familiar slogan "Play Ball" will ring out around the circuit and another six months of America's national sport inaugurated. With hardly a break the clubs will struggle for supremacy in the two leagues and the climax will come with the playing of the world's series in October between the pennant winning clubs of the two organizations.

KILLIFER EXPELLED

New York, April 14.—William Killifer, the well-known catcher awarded to the Philadelphia National league club by a Michigan court a few days ago, has fallen into disgrace with his associates of the baseball players' fraternity. President David L. Fultz of this organization announced that the Quaker backstop has been expelled from membership for contract jumping.

ATHLETICS FIRST

Philadelphia, April 14.—The Athletics' first championship for 1914 was captured here in the tenth inning of the final, interleague game with the Phillies, when Pitcher Pennock scored the deciding run by a wild but successful dash from third base to the plate when Murphy grounded to between the two organizations.

The present season will mark the thirty-ninth year of play in the National League and the fourteenth in the American League. National League history dates back to the spring of 1876 and during the ensuing years, thirty-eight pennants have been won by eight clubs. Chicago leads with ten championships to its credit; Boston is second with eight, and New York third with seven. Pittsburgh accounted for four, Brooklyn three, Baltimore three, Providence two and Detroit one. Since the opening year of the American League play in 1900 fourteen championships have been won, of which the Philadelphia club secured five, Boston three, Chicago three and Detroit three.

During the past winter many changes have occurred in the ranks of the major leagues. The Federal League secured from the older organizations a number of veterans and promising recruit players in its efforts to establish itself as a contender for baseball patronage. Several sensational trades and the appointment of new managers also caused decided changes in the combinations of various clubs. The National League was particularly active in this respect, the changes beginning with the selection of a new president in the person of John K. Tener and extending down through the ranks of owners, managers and players.

THAW HAS SCORED A VICTORY

By Associated Press.

Concord, N. H., April 14.—Harry Kendall Thaw's petition for a writ of habeas corpus was granted by Judge Edgar Aldrich, of the United States District Court. The court said however, that no order would be issued for his discharge from custody until arrangements have been completed to take the case to the United States Supreme Court on appeal.

Thaw's petition for bail the court left undetermined, taking the ground that it would be more appropriate for this to be passed on by the Supreme Court. The result of the decision leaves unchanged his guardianship and condition for the present, but the case will go to the highest court in the land with the decision of the lower court in his favor. The petition contains more than 10,000 words and discusses exhaustively the various phases of the case.

The court says that the report of the commission, supplemented by his own observation in several hearings, satisfies him that any supposed danger to the community by Thaw's liberty is so remote as to not warrant his being held in custody.

"I am not at all certain that I am not denying a plain right in denying this petition, and doing the petitioner an injustice by leaving the question undecided," said the court.

NOT ROSY

Washington, D. C., April 14.—Only by extraordinary steps can the Thaw case be considered by the United States Supreme court before next October, as the court plans to suspend the hearing of all cases on April 25, and hear no more arguments until October, unless some extraordinary occasion should demand. This probably means that Thaw will remain in custody until October. Those posted on court procedure think it may be Christmas before the case is finally passed upon.

tion between Washington and Tampico might put off the final determination two or three days. The tenseness of the situation is emphasized by the caution with which officials guard every statement relative to Rear Admiral Mayo's demand for a salute. It is understood that the Cabinet had information today that President Huerta persists in declining to accede to Admiral Mayo's demand. It is also understood that Huerta's stand is not irrevocable, but is couched in language which indicates that he is still open to conviction that the salute should be given if Mexican honor is not thereby punished.

Naval officers are insistent that Admiral Mayo should be sustained in his demand with the allowance of sufficient time for the Mexican officers to consider the proposition. This view was shared by some members of the Cabinet, when the subject was laid before them today.

KOELHER WAS FOUND GUILTY

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 14.—Major Ben M. Koehler, of the Coast artillery, tried by a general court martial last month at Fort Perry, N. Y., was found guilty of immoral conduct and sentenced to dismissal. This announcement was made by Secretary Garrison, who said the case had not been acted upon by war department officers. It is subject to review by Gen. Crowder and the chief of the army, as well as Sec. Garrison, before it goes to President Wilson for final settlement.

HUERTA SPURNS MAYO'S DEMAND

Vera Cruz, April 14.—General Gustave Maas, the federal commander at Vera Cruz, speaking with reference to the arrest of an American detachment from the Dolphin at Tampico and the demand by the American admiral for satisfaction for the insult to the American flag, said that the Mexican government had ordered General Morelos Zaragoza not to accede to Admiral Mayo's demand, which was that the American flag should be saluted within 24 hours, considering that such a step would be highly derogatory to national dignity and was also uncalled for, as absolutely no insults had been offered to the American flag.

JOHNSON GIVEN ANOTHER TRIAL

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Ill., April 14.—Jack Johnson, negro heavy-weight pugilist, has been granted a new trial under the Mann act of charges under which he was sentenced to one year in the pen and fined $10,000. The U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals reversed the decision of the lower court on certain of the counts in the indictment.

BILLY SUNDAY, SUICIDE CURE

Has Checked Despondency at U. of P.

Provost Smith Says.

Philadelphia.—The hope that a religious revival would tend to prevent suicides by students is said by Provost Edgar F. Smith to have been among his reasons for inviting Billy Sunday to hold meetings at the University of Pennsylvania.

Since the number of suicides in the university began to be a subject of public comment Provost Smith has felt that a religious awakening would be the best deterrent. He believed that Sunday was sincere and that his method of mixing religion with athletics in the language of his discourses might excite the students' attention.

The results of Sunday's shirt-sleeve evangelism exceed what Provost Smith had hoped for. Much fervor has been shown by the students at meetings, and Bible classes are being organized in all departments of the institution. The fraternities, among them Provost Smith's own fraternity, are inaugurating classes for the study of the Scripture. For all this Provost Smith gives a good share of credit to Billy Sunday.

WHEN DYING GETS SIGHT.

For an Hour Preceding Death Can See His Relatives.

Willows, Cal.—Before death took him from his family W. D. Martin, eighty-six years of age, after years of blindness had the satisfaction of seeing for an hour the faces of his loved ones and of taking a farewell look at earth.

The aged man had been blind and helpless for years and for a few weeks prayed earnestly that sight should be restored to him for once before he died. His prayer was answered, as for an hour he could see and recognize those around his bed. Then he became blind again.

He had no disease, but was simply wearing out with the infirmities of advanced years.

DAGO FRANK MAKES FULL CONFESSION

Warden Clancy of Sing Sing Issues Belated Statement.

ITALIAN CLAIMED INNOCENCE

Actual Murder of Rosenthal, He Said, Was Committed by Harry Vallon, Gyp the Blood and Lefty Louie. Pleasings of Mother and Sister Induced Confession—May Have Effect On Becker Case.

Albany, N. Y., April 14.—The actual murderer of Herman Rosenthal, for which the four gunmen were executed at Sing Sing, was committed by Harry Vallon, "Gyp the Blood" and "Lefty Louie," according to the confession made by "Dago Frank" Cirofici before he was led to the chair. This confession was made public by State Superintendent of Prisons John B. Riley after Governor Glynn had read it.

The pleadings of the mother and sister of Dago Frank and the hope of the young Italian for a reprieve induced the confession. It came too late, however, and indicated that Frank was equally guilty with the others, and for these reasons it failed to save him.

Cirofici would have confessed several days ago but for the fact that he had been terrorized by the other three gunmen with threats of death to his mother and sister if he told anything.

Warden Clancy, knowing that Cirofici was terrorized, brought him from the death cell to the office of the principal keeper, where he made his confession. The warden spent an hour or more with Governor Glynn and pointed out that Cirofici really thought he was innocent because he did not take part in the actual shooting.

Becker May Be Exonerated.

What effect Dago Frank's confession will have upon the already tangled situation in regard to the other principals in the case is a theme of discussion. Former Judge W. M. K. Oleott, an expert on criminal matters, said that it is his belief that Dago Frank's statement can not be introduced into court, no matter what the circumstances under which it was obtained. John F. McIntyre, who defended Police Lieutenant Becker at the first trial, said he is doubtful that it can be used as legal evidence, but that it is possible a judge might permit its introduction. He said that no similar situation had ever before occurred in America and that the law points involved are debatable.

"If the statements of Dago Frank can be proved admissible," he said, "they would tend largely to exonerate Becker."

Warden Clancy's Statement.

Warden Clancy gave out this statement: "A few hours before the executions, Rosenberg asked me to save Frank, saying he had nothing to do with the shooting, that he was not there. I went over and asked Frank why he didn't tell the truth. He replied that he knew what was going on, but was not there when the shooting took place. I advised him to tell the whole story. He said if he did they would kill his brother. I asked whom he meant by 'the brother.' He replied that there were 50 men in New York he could name. He added: 'I don't care about myself, it's my family I care for.'

"This caused Cirofici to be brought in the condemned cellkeeper's office about 4 o'clock Monday morning. He made the following, among other statements, in the presence of myself, Keeper McInerney, the chaplain, his mother and sister. They urged him to tell the whole truth. He hesitated and said: 'I don't want to make any statement for the public; I do not fear for myself, but I do for you.' His sister replied: 'Don't have any fear for us; we will take care of ourselves. God will protect us.' His mother and sister continued to urge him to tell the truth. He said: 'I did not do the shooting. The men who fired the shots were Gyp, Louie and Vallon. I was five miles away at the time. So far as I know, Becker had nothing to do with this case. It was a gamblers' fight."

FALLS FIVE STORIES; PICKED UP SMILING.

Boston, April 14.—After falling five stories to the bottom of an elevator well in a Pemberton square office building, John McInnis, a painter, was picked up smiling. McInnis calmly smoked a cigar as he was rushed
